RETREAT SCHEDULE

The retreat begins with registration Monday at noon with lunch served at 12:30 PM. Our first group session happens at 2:00 PM. The retreat concludes Wednesday morning by 11:30.

Au Sable features programs and educational opportunities that emphasize Christian earth-keeping. As a teaching institute, it offers college courses in the areas of field ecology. It is also an educational center for thousands of K-12 students who visit each year to learn about the natural world. Its philosophy is that God has given humankind the unique responsibility for maintaining and protecting his creation. Nestled in the beautiful north woods of Michigan's Lower Peninsula, Au Sable has been and continues to be a favorite meeting place for our Fall Ministers' Retreat.

MINISTERS' RETREAT

October 9-11, 2017

Guest Presenter: Andy Petro

Andy Petro—a Michigan native—has been in pastoral ministry since 1994, serving churches in Livonia, Michigan and Milford, Nebraska. Since 2009, he has served as the District Superintendent of the Midwest District, where he has the distinct privilege of coaching and encouraging those “still in the trenches.” Andy and his wife Ramona also lead a disciple-making ministry in eastern Nebraska called Table Nine Ten that features a lot of one-on-one discipleship and a network of small missional communities.

Andy has been married to his high school sweetheart for 36 years. They have six children and are still awaiting their orders for grandchildren to be filled.

Andy is an avid reader of science fiction and military history, a big fan of BBC television, a devoted fan of the Detroit Lions (gulp!) and Detroit Tigers, and a committed hiker and backpacker.
