

Purpose

Christian Ministries Institute (CMI) exists to increase the number of qualified Christian workers by providing a college-level education in Christian ministries with an alternative format to the traditional Christian college. CMI is licensed by the State of Michigan.

Values

We believe in excellence in education.

Our classes are taught by highly qualified instructors and are comparable to college-level instruction.

We believe in balanced education.

- Training in Theology
- Developing Christian Character
- Providing Practical Skills

We believe in providing affordable and convenient education.

Our education is designed to be accessible to the student who is unable, because of time or resources, to attend a traditional Christian college. We strive to keep the financial costs affordable and offer classes at times convenient to those who work full time. Classes fulfill educational requirements for credentials in the Missionary Church.

Academic Program

Christian Ministries Institute (CMI) is an equipping ministry focused on church leaders, teachers, second-career pastors, and veteran pastors to help them serve more effectively in their areas of ministry.

In the 2017-2018 academic year we are offering four classes at various locations. All of our classes are taught by excellent instructors who are committed to your spiritual growth and ministry effectiveness.

Two of the classes are 100 level classes – foundational studies that meet the educational requirements for licensing in the Missionary Church. If you are just starting the process or if you have an interest in deepening your understanding of God's Word, these classes are for you.

We are also offering two 200 level classes. These classes are open to any student but they can also be used to help fulfill the educational requirements for ordination. Dr. Alan Yerke will be offering a class on Pastoral Care and Pastor Doug Connelly will be offering a theology class on the doctrine of the Bible.

Tuition at CMI is affordable -- $250 per class. The Michigan Region also offers a partial scholarship for those who attend a Missionary Church. We don't want any student left out!

We hope you find a class or two that interests you. We have lively classes and great teachers. Call us if you have any questions. We are here to help you know and follow Jesus!
